

Concord Has the Cars for You!

In partnership with Concord's 17 new car dealers, the City has launched a campaign entitled "Concord Has the Cars for You." Concord is number one in new car sales in Contra Costa County. New Auto District signage has been installed and a radio and TV campaign will begin this month. For more information, visit www.concordhasthecarsforyou.com.

Award-Winning Spray Park

The new Meadow Homes Spray Park received an Agency Showcase Award from the California Park & Recreation Society, District 3, in the category of Outstanding Facility/Park. The 3,000 square foot state-of-the-art play feature attracted 8,000 visitors in its first year. Saturday, May 4 is opening day for the park's second season.

Find a Bike Rack in Concord

With spring just around the corner, more residents will be riding bicycles for fun and exercise. To make trips easier, the City has installed bicycle racks in 15 convenient locations and has posted a webpage at www.cityofconcord.org/bike that makes them easy to find. A handy map shows type of rack, maximum number of bikes that can be accommodated and the address.

Camp Concord will open on time

Camp Concord at South Lake Tahoe has been in the news lately because of the copper thefts from camp facilities. Residents should know that the damage will be repaired in time for camp to open in May for group rentals. Registration is now open for Family Camp, which will operate from Friday, June 28 through Friday, July 26, and from Saturday, Aug. 10 through Aug. 17. For more information, call 925-671-CAMP (2267) or click here.

Lose the Lawn & Grow a Garden

Residents tired of paying to water their front lawns may be eligible for a rebate of up to $500 from the Contra Costa Water District if they choose to replace the lawn with water-wise landscaping. The District's Water-Efficient Landscape Rebate Program offers 50 cents per square foot of lawn replaced. For more information, call (925) 688-8320 or see this link.
