

Come to the Downtown Ideas Fair Sept. 22

Residents and business owners are invited to join a conversation identifying the current strengths and future opportunities of downtown Concord at an Ideas Fair on Saturday, Sept. 22 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at the Concord Senior Center, 2727 Parkside Circle. The feedback from the fair will become part of the Downtown Specific Plan.

Look for bicycle officers downtown

Thanks to a $45,500 grant from the Brenden Mann Foundation, residents will be seeing bicycle officers patrolling the downtown on Thursday through Sunday evenings from 6 to 10 p.m. The officers will be reaching out to residents and business owners in the downtown to increase visibility and improve communication.

West Nile Alert

Summer is coming to a close, but the threat of the mosquito-borne West Nile Virus is still present. Did you know that even if you have eliminated standing water on your property, you may still be providing a breeding ground for mosquitos if you are overwatering your landscaping? The extra water collects in curbs and catch basins. By monitoring your sprinklers, you can reduce mosquitoes and be "Water Wise" at the same time.

Last chance for Music & Market

The popular Thursday Night Music & Market series at Todos Santos Plaza comes to a close for 2012 on Sept. 13 with a performance by Steve Lucky and the Rhumba Bums. The Farmers' Market continues without the music through Oct. 25 from 4 to 8 p.m. The market is also in the plaza every Tuesday year-round from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Sewer replacement project

The City is about to embark on a multi-year project to replace sewer lines in the downtown area. The project will be completed in three phases, with Phase 1 beginning this month. The Phase 1 area includes portions of Concord Avenue, Bonifacio Street, Almond Avenue, Bacon Street, East Street and some adjoining cross streets. Area residents will receive written notification before the project begins.
